

Put this on your fridge!

OCTOBER AT THE LIBRARY

TUES
SEPT 27
1PM

STEAM BITES: MAMMAL SKULLS

Mammal skulls: predator or prey? A close look at a variety of Maine mammal skulls to tell if they are carnivore, herbivore, or omnivore.

SAT
OCT 1
10:30

STORY TIME: THE KISSING HAND

A mother raccoon comforts a child raccoon by kissing its paw.

TUES
OCT 4
1PM

STEAM BITES: EVERYBODY IS SOMEBODY'S LUNCH

Explore the food chain and the importance of even the tiniest and peskiest of creatures.

SAT
OCT 8
10:30

STORY TIME: WILD CHILD BY LOCAL AUTHOR LYNNE PLOURDE

Time for bed, Mother Earth said. Not for a while, said her wild child.

TUES
OCT 11
1PM

STEAM BITES: BEAKS & FEET

Beaks and feet tell what you eat! Let's take a closer look at bird beaks and talons to determine what they eat.

SAT
OCT 15
10:30

STORY TIME: SECRETS OF THE APPLE TREE

Who lives around the apple tree? Shine a light behind the page and see.

SAT
OCT 22
10:30

STORY TIME: BIG PUMPKIN

On Halloween a witch struggles to release her pumpkin from a vine. We will decorate a pumpkin!

TUES
OCT 25
1PM

STEAM BITES: OWLS AND OWL PELLETS

Owls and owl pellets are the focus of the day.

SAT
OCT 29
10:30 TO NOON

LET'S CELEBRATE HALLOWEEN!

Follow the Story Walk trail and read Room on the Broom; join in Creative Time with Lucky, make a mask, and gather up Halloween treats.